DESCRIPTION: NATIONS CONSUMER LOANS

Types of Rates Available

Type of Rate	Rate Revision frequency
1 month variable rate	3 months
6 months variable rate	6 months
12 months variable rate	12 months
5 years fixed rate	Rate will be revised after 5 years only if there's any remaining tenure

*Rate revision will be subject to Bank's decision on interest rates.

Installment Options

Option	Description
Fixed installment amount with fixed tenure	This option is available if the loan is obtained at a fixed rate. The installment amount or the interest rate will not change for a maximum period of 5 years.
Fixed installment amount with variable tenure	This option is available for loans under variable rate. The installment amount will not change with the interest rate changes and customers can enjoy the convenience of paying the same installment maintaining their monthly cash flow. The loan tenure will be increased or decreased based on the interest rate fluctuations. If the customer does not specify his installment option, above option will be offered to the customer without any further verifications or requests.
Variable installment amount with fixed tenure	This option is available for loans under variable rate. The installment amount will change with the interest rate changes and the loan tenure will remain the same.

*For Housing and Auto loans, only fixed tenure options are available.

Mode of Repayment

Most encouraged method of repayment is to transfer the salary to the Bank, however setting up a standing instruction is also an option. If the customer signs up for "Nations Salary Saver" product or if the loan was approved subject to salary remittance to the Bank, it is mandatory to remit the salary to the Bank until the loan maturity date.

Important Terms

Loan Tenure	The repayment period allowed for the loan contract is the loan tenure. Loan tenure can be decided by the customer subject to eligibility and product terms and conditions.
Loan Account	Loan account number under which the loan contract is placed.
Loan Repayment Account	Should be a savings account and funds should be available in the account for repayment on or before the agreed due date.
Bank's Discretion	Loan approval is subject to the credit policy of the Bank and the Bank has the sole authority in such decisions.
Debt Service Ratio	This is the total monthly debt obligations versus the net income of a customer, expressed as a percentage. It is a globally used indicator to ascertain a customer's immediate ability to service debt. Customer should keep the Bank informed prior to making any new borrowings outside the Bank and any breach to this contract gives the right to the Bank to withdraw or recall the loan facility at its discretion.
Loan to Value	This depicts the ratio of an approved loan value to the value of the asset purchased
Debt Consolidation	This is the process of combining various facilities into one single facility. If the customer wishes to settle any other facility with another institute, the relevant documents for settlement should be supplied to the Bank without fail. Failure to do so may result in additional interest charges to the customer due to delays in settlement.
Odd Days Interest	If the first repayment is due within less than 1 month from the loan granted date, only the interest will be charged. 1st full installment will be charged from the next installment due date.
Due Date	The repayment date should be a date between 1st to 26th of each month and should be the salary date or salary day + 1 day for salaried customers. If the salary date is 26th or after the due date should be selected as 1st.
Reviewing the facility	The Bank will review any loan facility from time to time and to withdraw/cancel or recall the same or to vary the terms and conditions relating to the contract in its sole and absolute discretion without prior notice to the customer.
Accepting the Loan Facility	If the customer does not agree with the interest rate or any other condition once the loan is granted, customer shall promptly (in any event not later than 7 days) inform the Bank on the inability to accept the loan and should not make use of the loan proceeds.
Recoveries	If no sufficient funds are available in the loan repayment account by the due date, the loan will be in arrears and will be reported as a delinquent account. During the first 3 months of delinquency, payment reminders will be sent via letters, calls and text messages and customer visits if required. The referees will be contacted if the Bank fails to establish contact with the customer. If the delinquency continues to the fourth month, the Bank may appoint third party collection agents for the recovery of outstanding amounts and costs of such collection will be recovered from the customer. The Bank is authorised to debit any current, savings accounts or fixed deposit accounts maintained with the Bank with all amounts payable under or in respect of the loan, even to the extent of creating an overdraft or increasing an existing overdraft limit, on the due dates as agreed, together with the amount of interest payable without any notice to the customer.
